

Mission

The goal of the Engineering Freshmen Council this coming year is to promote more active involvement within the freshman class and the College of Engineering, and enrich the connection between EFC and Engineering Council.

Position Descriptions

President: The President seconds as an executive board member of Engineering Council on top of EFC. Responsible for achieving the specified goals of the committee through effective organization and delegation of tasks. Oversees all meetings and EFC related events throughout the year. Works closely with the EC President throughout their endeavors during the year.

Vice President: The VP will sit on the Diversity and Inclusion Committee of EC. Responsible for organization of calendar and communication among the EFC Executive Board, along with taking meeting minutes. Assists the president in their weekly tasks. The VP will lead meetings and attend events when the president cannot.

Corporate Chair: Responsible for planning corporate events for freshmen and building more continual relationships with leaders both inside and outside of the University. Overall, wants to expose freshmen to various career paths and provide career and leadership resources. Sits on the EC Corporate Committee.

Engineering Open House (EOH) Chair: Sits on the University of Illinois EOH Central Committee. Responsible for coordinating the building of EFC's EOH science exhibits. Runs a respective committee of freshmen for accomplishing this task.

Outreach Chair: Responsible for helping promote engineering at Illinois to high school students. Works closely with the Engineering Council EOB Director to accomplish new initiatives and help coordinate Engineer Days. Sits on the Engineering Outreach Bureau (EOB).

Service Chair: Plans service, philanthropy, and outreach events for freshmen. Works to promote service events amongst societies and freshman groups in particular. Sits on the service committee and helps coordinate and enhance their events. Sits on EC Service committee.

Social Chair: Responsible for planning social events for all freshmen in Engineering Council as well as for helping social plan events between EC and EFC to promote a connection and unity amongst the two groups. Sits on EC Social committee

Publicity Chair: Assists the EC Director of Information with managing the website and social media pages. Helps coordinate the society photos event in the fall semester. Sits on the Publicity Committee. Sits on EC publicity committee.

Awards Chair: Helps promote new awards to be given out to freshmen members in external societies. Works on helping to plan and enhance EFC events and scholarships. Helps manage the display case outside of the Engineering Council Office. Sits on the Awards Committee.